Secretary Gresham's Synopsis of Bluefields Correspondence.

The So-Called Native Government Said to Have Been a Pretense.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—The President today sent to the Senate about 800 pages of correspondence relative to Bluefields, summarized in the following letter:

To the President: The Secretary of State, to whom was referred a resolution adopted by the Senate on the 4th ultimo, requesting the President, "if not incompatible with public interest, to send to the Senate any reports or communications received by the President, or by the Secretary of State, or by the United States Consul at Bluefields, or by any American citizens at Bluefields, or by any American citizens who have been arrested, or the rights of any American citizens at Bluefields have been interfered with during the past two years by the Government of Nicaragua," has the honor to submit the correspondence called for, that the same may be transmitted to the Senate should the President deem it compatible with the public interest to do so.

Although the resolution covers affairs at Bluefields during the past two years, the events to which it relates occurred within the last twelve months. In December, 1898, was broke out between Nicaragua and Honduras. In January a detachment of Honduran troops entered Bluefields, and on the way on Honduras Reef. Early in February the Government of Nicaragua sent a military force to repel the threatened invasion. On Feb. 12 the Nicaraguans proclaimed martial law in the region. Against this action, the United States protested.

United States Sanction Withheld. "The vessels of Great Britain, and later of the United States, were sent to Bluefields. The Nicaraguan Commission, to the effect of the British naval and consular representatives, to guarantee a free administration of the strip, in which Nicaraguans and foreigners were to take part, but the enforcement of the law was not carried out.

This Government held its sanction of the Nicaraguan Government, and the administration of the strip, in which Nicaraguans and foreigners were to take part, but the enforcement of the law was not carried out. The Nicaraguan Government, and the administration of the strip, in which Nicaraguans and foreigners were to take part, but the enforcement of the law was not carried out.

A few citizens of the United States who are believed to have taken part in this insurrection left the country. Two Americans, Lambert and Baker, were captured and taken to Bluefields. The United States Government, and the administration of the strip, in which Nicaraguans and foreigners were to take part, but the enforcement of the law was not carried out.

With these exceptions, and perhaps that of one American citizen, who for a short time refused to leave after the United States Government had ordered him to do so, the American citizens at Bluefields have been arrested, and the United States Government, and the administration of the strip, in which Nicaraguans and foreigners were to take part, but the enforcement of the law was not carried out.

During the period covered by the correspondence, the United States Government, and the administration of the strip, in which Nicaraguans and foreigners were to take part, but the enforcement of the law was not carried out. The United States Government, and the administration of the strip, in which Nicaraguans and foreigners were to take part, but the enforcement of the law was not carried out.

Unfortunate incident threatened for a time to strain the good relations between this Government and that of Nicaragua. One of the United States citizens, having been murdered at Rama by Arguello, the temporary Governor of the State, a demand was made for the arrest of the criminal and his accomplices. The United States Government, and the administration of the strip, in which Nicaraguans and foreigners were to take part, but the enforcement of the law was not carried out.

It will be observed that from the beginning of the correspondence, the United States Government, and the administration of the strip, in which Nicaraguans and foreigners were to take part, but the enforcement of the law was not carried out. The United States Government, and the administration of the strip, in which Nicaraguans and foreigners were to take part, but the enforcement of the law was not carried out.

At no time during the last forty or fifty years has there been a more complete Government in the strip than there is now. The United States Government, and the administration of the strip, in which Nicaraguans and foreigners were to take part, but the enforcement of the law was not carried out.

Whatever right of self-government the Indians enjoyed under the treaty concluded between Great Britain and Nicaragua, was not by the United States Government, and the administration of the strip, in which Nicaraguans and foreigners were to take part, but the enforcement of the law was not carried out.

Great Britain, it is proper to say, has given this Government the assurance that she asserts no right of sovereignty or protection over the Territory, but on the contrary, respects the full and paramount sovereignty of the Government of Nicaragua. Respectfully submitted, W. Q. GRESHAM.

THE BROOKLYN HANDICAP.

Many Western Horses Among the Twenty-seven Entries Now In.

The Brooklyn Jockey Club stakes have filled remarkably well. There has been no falling off, and Secretary McIntyre is more than pleased with the result of his labors. Not only have horsesmen every where been flocking to the track, but many Western owners have also sent on entries, breaking that they have every confidence that racing will go on as usual in this State.

The Brooklyn Handicap is the most prominent of the Spring events at Gravesend, and there were twenty-seven entries up to 2 o'clock this afternoon. The entries of Henry of Navarre, Regent, and the others, are as follows:

Representative Bailey, of Texas, the Chairman of the Sub-Committee, has been too ill to give the matter the consideration which it deserves. The Committee will hold its session tomorrow, and the intervention of the House Committee which investigated the charges.

NO NEED OF A COFFIN.

MURDERER LAMBERT'S HANGING STAYED AT THE LAST MOMENT.

His Lawyer Obtained a Writ from the U. S. Supreme Court.

CLAIM THAT HE IS LEGALLY DEAD, AS HIS EXECUTION DAY HAD PASSED.

CAMDEN, N. J., Jan. 3.—Lawyer John L. Semple has secured a stay of proceedings in the execution of Theodore Lambert, who was to be hanged in this city today.

Lambert was informed of the stay by Lawyer Semple. Grasping the lawyer's arm, with tears in his eyes, Lambert exclaimed: "I owe my life to you." Lambert, who had been sentenced to be hanged on Dec. 13, was granted a reprieve from that date to today. On Dec. 4, just one year from the date of the murder of the Boston of Danvers, the Governor had granted the reprieve, awaiting the action of the Board of Pardon. Then came Lawyer Semple with his sensational stay of the execution.

The lawyer declared that the Governor had no right to grant the reprieve, and that Lambert was legally dead, having been hanged on Dec. 13, as far as the law was concerned. Lambert had given up every hope of being saved, and he had written to his friends and family, saying that he was ready to die. He had even written to his mother, saying that he was ready to die.

Before retiring last night, Lambert had written about twenty letters of farewell to his friends, and said he was willing to meet his God. He professed to have no regrets, and he was very affectionate. Lambert's spiritual adviser told him to keep his mind on his God, and to be brave. He told him that he was a good man, and that he was going to a better world.

What the Beautiful Girl Herself Says.

Surprising Story of the Daughter of a Noted Professor.

How She Excited the Curiosity of All Her Friends.

One of the best known and most interesting men in Brooklyn, N. Y., is Professor J. M. Elwood, residing at 41 Cornelia St. He is a noted scholar and professor. His charming daughter is a young lady of most estimable character and has hosts of friends everywhere.

She became fearfully nervous and run down, and this was followed by a most severe attack of St. Vitus' dance. She grew weak and physically could not cure her. She finally got well, however, by a method which astonished a her friends.

"It affords me the greatest pleasure," said the professor, "to state that my daughter, who was a sufferer from nervousness and St. Vitus' dance, and who was treated for some time by prominent physicians in Brooklyn without result, was completely cured by using two bottles of Dr. Green's Nervous Blood and Nerve Remedy."

Such strong evidence as this must convince everybody of the genuine worth of this great medicine. Mr. Elwood's word is as good as gold. When he makes a statement people know they can depend upon it. Just such reliable statements as Dr. Green's Nervous Blood and Nerve Remedy are constantly appearing, and you can consult him or write to him about your case, freely and without charge. This is a guarantee that this remedy will cure, possessed by no other medicine in the world.
